MATTHEWS MAY CONTEST

to Mr. Matthews lapsed.

ed the contract to the Roanoke com-cation was less than that of the Virginia Bridge and Iron Company, com-plains that he did not know that al-

MEETS IN GRAND RULING

Recorder J. D. Myers.

RECEIVES BIRD BOOK

President Hart, of Auduhon Society, Gets Valuable Work From Alabama.

Jr., the Alabama Bird Day Book of 1915. The pamphlet is full of inter-the future generation the economic Requisition on Kentucky Governor.

Governor Stuart yesterday issued a requisition on the Governor of Ken-

Auto Licenses Will Exceed 15,000.

The total number of automobile li-censes this year will exceed 15,000, ac-cording to the estimate of Chief Clerk James M. Hayes, Jr., of the office of Secretary of the Commonwealth B. O. James, To this time the total number termed for 1915 is 1° 200. At an everyone

James. To this time the total number issued for 1915 is 12,390. At an average of $10 each this revenue will amount to $150,000.

Why Do French Women

In France mothers and daughters look like sisters. How are the women there able to retain their youthful looks until

JOTO EXCURSION TO

NORFOLK

Sunday, April 11th

Via N. & W. R. R. $1.50 ROUND TRIP

Always Look Young?

enforcing the State's protection laws.

ternate designs would be received.

WEDDINGS HOLD STAGE IN RICHMOND SOCIETY

Miss Janie Preston Boulware Becomes Bride of Brockenbrough Lamb.

MISS FRENCH PATTON WEDS

Daughter of Late Colonel and Mrs. John M. Patton Marries W. Gordon Harvie, III., at Church Wedding in Darlington, S. C.

Quantities of fragrant white and pink blossoms, against a background of lighted tapers and evergreen, formed an effective setting for the marriage of Miss Janie Preston Boulware, daughter of the late Aubin Lee Boulware and Mrs. Boulware, to Brockenbrough Lamb, son of the late Judge James Christian Lamb and Mrs. Lamb, which was celebrated yesterday evening at 6 o'clock in the home of the bride's mother, 1 East Franklin Street. Rev. Landon R. Mason, rector of Grace Episcopal Church, officiated.
Only the immediate families and a few intimate friends were present at the ceremony, a small reception follow-The decorations in the long drawing-room were all in Ascension lilles and white candles, and an improvised altar was arranged here between the windows and in front of a long mirror. The mantels were banked with flowers and smilax, and in the library and dingr-room pink and white roses and ing-room pink and white roses and trailing vines were used. The table was set with a big centerpiece of pink roses and the lights were shaded in rose color. An orchestra rendered the wedding music and played for the reception

The bride descended the stairway The bride descended the stairway with her brother, Aubin Lee Boulware, Jr. who gave her away. Her wedding gown was fashioned of ivory satin and rare old family lace, and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bride's veil of illusion was arranged with a coronet of orange blossoms and fastened with a beautiful old pearl spray pin, which the bride's grandmother Preston had worn at the time of mother Preston had worn at the time of her marriage. The groom was attend-ed by his brother, James C. Lamb, Jr., as best man. Miss Eliza Lamb, who was maid of honor, wore a gown of pink chiffon over pink messaline, finished chiffon over pink messaline, finished with silver and caught up at intervals with tiny pink rosebuds. She carried an armful of pink roses.

beth Hargrave, Frances R. Wheat and Archer Joynes, were gowned alike in quaint pink frocks of taffeta. These were trimmed in pink silk net and tiny sprays of pink rosebuds and their bou-quets were of pink roses. The groomsmen were Messrs. Richard W. Carring-ton, John T. Wingo, John Stephenson, Jr., of Warm Springs; Lewis Crenshaw, of the University of Virvinia; Maxwell Gordon Wallace and Charles Mason, of Frankfort V.

Gordon Wallace and Charles Mason, of Frankfort, Ky.

Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs.
Lamb left for a Northern wedding journey, and upon their return will be at home on West Avenue. Some of the guests from a distance attending the ceremony were Captain and Mrs. William Radford Beale, of Buchanan; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Caperton Huffman, of Cincinnati, O.; Miss Lucy Preston Coles, of "Woodville" Albemarle County; G.
T. Boulware, of "Saint Julien," near Fredericksburg: Charles Mason, of Frankfort, Ky. John Stephenson, Jr., of Warm Springs: Misses Alice and Agnes of Kilarney roses and candles were used ons ago. Mr. Lamb, who is a promi-nent young attorney here, is a gradu-ate of the University of Virginia.

One of the largest society gatherngs of the week will fill the Academy of Music this evening to witness the initial performance of the Society Minstrels, given by the Girls' Auxiliary for the Belle Bryan Day Nursery. A brilliant audience will fill the theater when the A brilliant audience will fill the theater when the curtain rises, and the boxes will be gay with fashionable parties of society folk. The auxiliary of which Mrs. James Gordon Smith is president, includes in its membership some of the leading society given by this organization are among the notable features of each season. There will be three other performances at the Academy of Music, to-morrow and Saturday evenings and Saturday evenings and Saturday.

at the Academy of Music, to-morrow and Saturday evenings and Saturday wore a suit of white corduroy. Miss matines.

Leaves for Hampton.

Mrs. R. Z. Johnson and her children, who have been spending the past s. veral days as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Scrivenor in this city, left town yesterday for Hampton. They have gone to Hampton to Join Mrs. Johnson's husband, whose ship came in yesterday to band, whose ship came in yesterday to Hampton Roads, following a cruise in evening at 7 o'clock in St. Matthew's Church at Darlington, S. C., Rev. J.

Lindsay Patton and Rev. R. W. Patton, both brothers of the bride, officiating.
The church was througed with sevening at an attractive dance given by Misses Isabelle and Elizabeth Scott

Allen Bonnoitt, who also rendered the wedding marches.

The bride entered the church with her brother, George T. Patton, of Darlingnet at the chancel steps by the groom and his brother, Lewis E. Harvie, of Richmond, who was best man. The bride's wedding gown was of white crepe and lace, with a long tulle veil, and she carried a bonquet of billes of the valley and orchids. Miss Parke Patton was her sister's maid of honor and wore a gown of pink crepe meteor with a bouquet of pink roses. The bridesmaids included Misses Mary Patton, niece of the bride, and Otella Harton, niece of the bride, niece of the dancing. A built. Jane will spend about a week.

Monday for Easton, Pa, a ton, niece of the bride, and Otella Harvie, of sister of the groom; Dr. Lewis Taylor, of Washington; William Harvie, of Huntington, W. Va.; Garland Jefferson and Harvie Taylor, both of Amelia; Armistead Harvie, of Richmond, and William R. Patton, of Darlington, were groomsmen. The bridesmaids wore frocks of pale blue taffeta with big bounets of pink sweetness, tied with frocks of pale blue taffeta with big bouquets of pink sweetpeas, tied with streamers of pink tulle.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's brother, George T. Patton. Mr. and Mrs. Harvie left later for a honeymoon trip to Florida. They will be at home on their return at Mattoax. The marriage is of wide interest in Virginia, as well as in Richmond, where both brde and groom are prominently related, and a number of Hichmond friends and relatives went to South Carolina for the wedding. The bride spent the past two winters in this city, following an extended absence in the North and abroad.

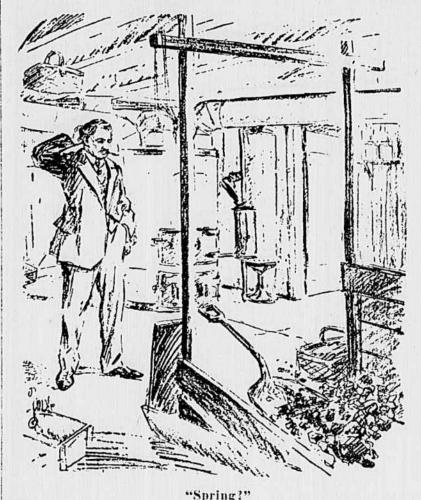

Westmoreland Club Disner Dance, One of the largest erowds of the see.

One of the largest erowds of the see.

One of the largest erowds of the see.

Westmoreland Club Dinner Dance. One of the largest crowds of the season will attend the Easter dinner dance at the Westmoreland Club to-morrow evening. Numerous tables have already melech Outgley Higginbotham George. been reserved in advance, and a great T. Peers; Amariah Higginbotham, Miss there for that occasion. This affair is al-

SKETCHES FROM LIFE -:- By Temple

the evening.

Home Wedding To-Night.

Butler, of Poplar Grove, Mathews at John B. Cary School, Rowland and County, will be maid of honor, and Mrs. Augustine Royall Turpin will be dame of honor. Dr. Murat Willis will act as Springfield Fresh other attendants will be D. Bowen, Dr. No. Miss Anita Cussen, whose marriage Robert Clark, to Dr. A. A. Marsteller is to be celebrated by the Rt. Rev. D. J. O'Connell, "Cinderella in best man for Dr. Marsteller, and his other attendants will be Dr. Samuel Bowen, Dr. Norton Mason, Dr. Robert Preston and Vincent O'Reiley, of Roanoke. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Wil-

Warm Springs: Misses Alice and Agnes Kilarney roses and candles were used Brockenbrough, of "Belleville," near at each end.

The wedding last evening, although only a quiet home ceremony, was one of the most important society events of the spring season, since it united two old and distinguished families that have long been prominent in the history of the State. The bride made her formal debut in Richmond several seasons are Mr. Lamb who is a ground of illusion fell from a corone of real on the process of the proces The bride came down the stairway from a distance attending the cere-mony were Mrs. George Mahoney and Miss Mary Agnes Jones, of Ports-mouth; Jacob Karr, Mrs. Amy Benner The marriage of Miss Susan French Patton, daughter of the late Colonel and Mrs. John M. Patton, to W. Gordon Harvie, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Polytechnic Institute.

Lindsay Patton and Rev. R. W. Patton, evening at an attractive dance given both brothers of the bride, officiating, by Misses Isabelle and Elizabeth Scott for the ceremony, and the altar was decorated in Florida moss, palms and Franklin Street. The beautiful ball-southern smilax, interspersed with Cathedral candles. Wiley Rhodes sang "A Perfect Day," accompanied by Mrs. Allen Bonnoitt, who also rendered the wedding marches.

The bride entered the church with her.

Committee for Glee Club.

ways a charming event and the flower-laden tables will be througed with handsomely gowned society women and Judkins, Miss Gay Lee: Mr. Huckelton, their escorts to-morrow evening. Dancing will take place in the sun-parlor, and an orchestra will play throughout widow, Miss Helen Monsell, the widow's the evening. six children, Misses Dorothy Nunna-maker, Eva and Mary Peers, Masters Robert Clark, Welford Trevillian and

At the Woman's Club.

A charming program was rendered at the Woman's Club, yesterday afternoon, by Miss Annie Louise Reinhardt, violinist, and Miss Myrtle Redford, pianist. the home of the bride's aunt, alle.

liam G. Gwatkin, 400 North Allen Avenue. Little Miss Julia Maxwell, niece of the bride, will be flower girl.

Both are musicians of note in musical circles of Richmond, and a large audience was present to hear them. The parlors were decorated in spring flowers and tea was served at the conclu-sion of the program, Mrs. J. Arthur Lefroy was chairman of the afternoon. Dawson-Gills.

Dawson-Gills.

Voyle W. Dawson and Miss Myra Reeves Gills were quietly married on Monday evening at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Gills, 7 East Main Street. Dr. T. Clagett Skinner, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, performed the ceremony, and James L. Womble played the wedding music. Thelma Fenson was ring-bearer. The bride wore a sand-colored traveling suit with a hat to match and carried a shower bouquet of lilles of the valley and Bride roses. sand-colored traveling success and-colored traveling success sand-colored sand-colored traveling success sand-colored travel with a court train and trimmings of rose point lace and pearls. Her veil of illusion fell from a coronet of real lace and orange blossoms, and caught to the hem of her gown with sprays their friends at a card party given at their home on First Avenue, Highland of the same flowers. She was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Gladys Van ilook Peyton, as maid of honor, Miss Peyton wore a frock of pastel pink charmeuse with a picturesque hat of pink maline, and she carried a hat shower of pink sweetpeas. George Ellis Redford, Jr., was the groom's state, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Sizemore, Dr. F. K. Lord, Mr. and shower of pink sweetpeas. George Combe, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lips-Jr., the Alabama Bird Day Book of Ellis Redford, Jr., was the groom's sister, Miss Gladys Van ilook Peyton, as maid of honor. Miss spring flowers and potted pints. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Mount-castle, Mr. and Mrs. W. Society, Gets Valuable Work From Alabama.

M. D. Hart, president Hart, of Auduhon Society. Gets Valuable Work From Alabama.

M. D. Hart, president of the Audubon Society. Gets Valuable Work From Alabama.

M. D. Hart, president of the Audubon Society. Gets Valuable Work From Alabama.

M. D. Hart, president Hart, of Auduhon Society. Gets Valuable Work From Alabama.

M. D. Hart, president Hart, of Auduhon Society. Gets Valuable Work From Alabama.

M. D. Hart, president Hart, of Auduhon Society. Gets Valuable Work From Alabama.

M. D. Hart, president Hart, of Auduhon Society. Gets Valuable Work From Alabama.

M. D. Hart, president Hart, of Auduhon Society. Gets Valuable Work From Alabama.

M. D. Hart, president Hart, of Auduhon Society. Gets Valuable Work From Alabama.

M. D. Hart, president Hart, of Auduhon Society. Gets Valuable Work From Alabama.

M. D. Hart, president Hart, of Auduhon Society. Gets Valuable Work From Alabama.

M. D. Hart, president Hart, of Auduhon Society. Gets Valuable Work From Alabama.

M. D. Hart, president Hart, of Auduhon Society. Gets Valuable Work From Alabama.

M. D. Hart, president Hart, of Auduhon Society. Gets Valuable Work From Alabama.

M. D. Hart, president Hart, of Auduhon Society. Gets Valuable Work From Alabama.

M. D. Hart, president Hart, of Auduhon Society. Gets Valuable Work From Alabama.

M. D. Hart, president Hart, of Auduhon Society. Gets Valuable Work From Alabama.

M. D.

Academy on the evening of April 16, in the auditorium of that institution. Along with other features of the per-

Along with other features of the per-formance, it is expected that the sketch known as "The Book Agent," which will be presented by "Billy" Burke, J. Mel-vin O'Grady, and John Ingersoll, will afford considerable amusement. Fred Gilliam, who has seen service in one of the largest yandeville circuits will be the largest vaudeville circuits, will be seen in song and dance.

Much interest is being taken in the play, "Miss Fearless & Co.," which will be presented at Madison School auditorium this evening at 8:15 o'clock. This play is to be presented by an excellent cast, composed of several prominent young people of Richmond, who have cast, composed of several prominent young people of Richmond, who have met with splendid success in other parts of the city.

It is a comedy in three acts, and there will be a special musical program between the acts. The proceeds are for the benefit of the Baptist Young People's Union of Pine Street Baptist Church.

requisition on the Governor of Kentucky for Will Sparks, now in Jall at Flemingsburg, that State, Sparks has been indicted in Russell County for malicious trespass. The requisition papers were delivered by Secretary Fortward to C. W. Hunt, deputy sheriff of Russell, yesterday morning, and the ofcorrect left for Kentucky yesterday afternoon to bring back the prisoner.

IN AND OUT OF TOWN.

Mrs. John T. Anderson left town on Monday for Easton, Pa., and New York, where she will spend about a week.

able to retain their youthful looks until long past middle age? Is it because they are much given to the use of mercollæd wax? This wax possesses a remarkable absorbent property which quickly removes the fine particles of cutlele which are constantly dying and which are the immediate cause of an old-looking complexion. Thus the livelier, healthier, younger skin beneath is given a churce to breathe and show itself. Try this treatment yourself, Most likely it will not require two weeks to make your complexion as clear, soft and beautiful as a young sirls. Just one ounce of mercollæd wax (all American druggists have it) usually does the work. The wax is put on nights like cold cream and washed off mornings. Mrs. E. F. Marsteller and her daughter, Miss Pauline Marsteller, of Washington, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Phil Taylor on Monument Avenue for the

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Dunford, of Portsmouth, have been spending Easter with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fautenner, in this city.

Misses Mary and Eleanor Swann, accompanied by their consin. Mrs. C. Wal-

The regular monthly meeting of the ginia Glee Club concert, April 16, will at the Jefferson Hotel. All members rangements for the University of Vir-EIGHT INDICTMENTS

True Bill Charges William K. Jasper The candy booth committee will meet at the Blues' Armory this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The meeting is a most important one, and a full attendance is With Felonious As-

Eight indictments were returned yesterday by the Federal grand jury sitting in the United States district court

Mrs. Benjamin Crump will introduce Mis; Joy Montgomery Higgins, who will speak before the Equal Suffrage League of Richmond at its regular weekly meeting this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock on the suffrage campaign recently conducted in Nebraska. Miss Higgins is the founder and secretary of the Nebraska Audubon Society, one of the Nebraska Audubon Society, one of the organizers of the Onaha Social Settlement work, and one of the trustees of the Nebraska Higmane Society. Mirs Coralle Johnston, one of the visiting school nurses, with nine schools under her direct supervision, will speak of the relation of bad teeth to the health of the children. The public is cordiaily invited.

ting in the United States district court for the Eastern District of Virginia.

A true bill was entered against William K. Jasper, charging him with feloniously assaulting J. W. Tenliffe in the Norfolk Navy Yard on October 22, 1914. An indictment was returned against Upton Tebo, alias Upton Tebon, and Robert Wills, charging them with stealing $13 in currency and postage stamps from the Norfolk post-office on January 8, 1915.

David Avent, of Greenesville County, is charged with carrying on a retail liquor business without having first paid the special license tax.

Otto Wolf was indicted on a charge of stealing mail matter, consisting of

HEWS MAY CONTEST

BRIDGE REPAIR AWARD

Otto Wolf was indicted on a charge of stealing mail matter, consisting of a letter addressed to Mrs. A. R. Langborne, Box 48, Richmond, on January 15, 1915.

James W.

Attorney for Last-Year Bidder Exnmines loto Contract to Roanoke Company.

Attorney for Last-Year Bidder Exat Tasley, Accomac County, a letter addressed to J. II. Fogle containing $5.46 and a letter addressed to Mar-Attorney W. Kirk Matthews, counsel for H. L. Matthews, a bidder last year for the repairing and reconstruction of the Free Bridge, was in the City light setted on the containing $33.23. Rew was at the time of the alleged theft an employe of the Federal civil service.

of the Free Bridge, was in the City vice.

Itall yesterday securing all the details of the award of the contract to the Virginia Bridge and Iron Company, of Roanoke.

Contractor Matthews proposed to reconstruct the bridge at a cost of $53,000, according to the specifications submitted by the City Engineer. The Roanoke company submitted a bid according to the same specifications, placing the cost at $59,000. At the same time the company submitted a bid on its own specifications, proposing to do the work for $17.760. When the bids were submitted last May, the Administrative to spread on the records.

submitted last May, the Administrative Board had an appropriation of only $45,000 with which to care for the bridge, and accepted Mr. Matthews's bid, the acceptance being provisioned by the bridge of the bridge of the bridge of the bridge.

without first having paid the special license tax on October 8, 1914, near on a further appropriation by the City Council. No further appropriation being forthcoming the conditional award COMMISSIONERS WANT HOT The Administrative Board has awardpany on its own design. Mr. Matthews, whose bid on the City Engineer's speci-Report to Hustings Court on Condition of Building and Equipment.

WATER FOR CITY JAIL

According to the quarterly report of ternate designs would be received.

It is pointed out, however, that the lerday to the Hustings Court, the City Administrative Board has wide powers Jail is still in the same location and in awarding contracts, and that it may accept or reject any or all bids, irrespective of the price offered.

Spective of the price offered.

The same dimensions as at the time of the last visit by them. Of course, it had not been expected that the jail had been moved in the interim, or that it had increased or decreased in size; but it should be stated that the com-missioners are required to note whether the size of the jail is the same, so that Fraternal Mystic Circle Hears Supreme the court may judge whether it is being overcrowded. The Fraternal Mystic Circle met last

The commissioners reported that the

The Fraternal Mystic Circle met last night in grand ruling in Murphy's Hotel annex. Twenty-five delegates were present, and J. D. Myers, of Philadelphia, supreme recorder, delivered the principal address.

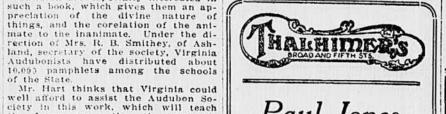

Officers were elected as follows: H. W. Langhorn, Martinsburg, W. Va., grand ruler; A. W. Farrar, Norfolk, vice-grand ruler; B. G. Garner, Richmond, grand recorder; T. E. Matthews, Martinsburg, Va., past grand treasurer; H. T. Gaver, Martinsburg, past grand ruler; Mrs. A. E. Gaver, Martinsburg, grand chaplain; C. C. Firesheets, Norfolk, grand marshal; C. F. Heard, grand warden; A. L. Chapin, grand sentinel; W. L. Tyler, grand sentinel; C. C. Firesheets, Norfolk, grand sentinel; C. C. Firesheets, Norfolk, grand marshal; C. F. Heard, grand warden; A. L. Chapin, grand sentinel; W. L. Tyler, grand sentinel; C. C. Firesheets, Norfolk, grand sentinel; C. C. Firesheets, Norfolk, grand marshal; C. F. Heard, grand warden; A. L. Chapin, grand sentinel; W. L. Tyler, grand sentinel; C. C. Firesheets, Norfolk, grand sentinel; C. C. Firesheets, Norfolk, grand marshal; C. F. Heard, grand warden; A. L. Chapin, grand sentinel; W. L. Tyler, grand sentinel; C. C. Firesheets, Norfolk, grand sentinel; C. C. Firesheets, Norfolk, grand marshal; C. F. Heard, grand warden; A. L. Chapin, grand sentinel; C. C. Firesheets, Norfolk, grand sentinel; G. C. Firesheets, Norfolk, grand marshal; C. F. Heard, grand chaplain; C. C. Firesheets, Nor-folk, grand marshal; C. F. Heard, grand warden; A. L. Chapin, grand sentinel; W. L. Tyler, grand sentinel; C. C. Fire-

Jewish Juntors' Meeting

Jewish Juniors' Meeting
The April meeting of the Council of Jewish Juniors will be held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Sabbath school room of Beth Ahabah. A large attendance is requested, as the nomination of officers is scheduled for this

An address on "Gallic Humor" will be delivered by Dr. R. A. Stewart, of Richmond College, and a vocal selec-tion will be rendered by Dr. Maurice Kohling

Patrick Henry Lodge Meeting. session in Murphy's Hotel annex to-night at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be followed by a dance, given for the benefit of the degree team

Paul Jones Jack Tar Mar-Hoff Middy Blouses

Three of the best-known makes manufactured. These styles we feature here in a complete assortment of styles and sizes ranging in price from $1.00, $1.50 and $1.98.

THE WHITE AREA THE STATE OF THE The Big Bankrupt Sale Clothing at Half-Price

Another valuable secret with which the French are familiar is how to quickly remove wrinkles. One ounce of powdered saxolite dissolved in a half pint witch hazel, makes a maryolously effective astringent lotion. The face should be bathed in this daily until even the deepest lines are affected. $3.00 Silk Shirts, $1.19 Corner 4th and Broad Sts.

Annua mount

THE KAUFMANN STORE

Lovely Lingerie Blouses

BLOUSES bespeaking the boulevards of Paris-the daintiest of models, some with myriad tucks, or pretty touches of embroidery or daintily hemstitched or trimmed with lace. Many show the military effect, carried out by the use of tiny buttons or the application of a bit of color in the trimming.

One particularly attractive model at $2.39 is called the "Joffre." It is made of fine French batiste, with clusters of pin tucks back and front, the Vestee and roll collar of Swiss embroidered batiste, with small bone buttons. Shown in flesh and white.

A Blouse of fine voile, has a full Janice Meredith ruffle, finished with pink and blue striped voile at the edges in contrast. Deep roll collar, set-in sleeve and narrow turnback cuffs. This one is only $1.98.

Another model at $1.98 is in French Organdy, with embroidered vestee and convertible collar. In flesh and white this model shows the new three-quarter sleeve, which is indicated as correct for late

Then there are ten styles of the new Voile Blouse, embroidered in the Japanese effects and finished with filet, Oriental and French Val., with upstanding, roll or convertible collars. Jap embroidered models are $2.98.

spring and summer.

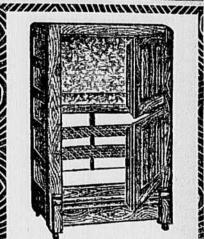

HAVE YOU SEEN THE New MethodGasRanges PETTIT & CO.'8

USE EATMOR BREAD Pure and Wholesome

CHILDREN'S SCHOOL

Cor. Fifth and Broad Streets.

Get our prices on Refrigerators before you purchase. We can save you money.

When you're tired there's nothing like a cup of good hot tea to cheer and refresh you DRINK

